“ Kels was not only my cousin, he was my brother. I was the only girl growing up with 3 boys (which kels was one of them). He never called me by my name he ALWAYS called me Sis!! I cant only share one memory because we have shared a lifetime of memories that i definately will never forget. The ones i will never forget is all of us playing baseball in grannys yard and busting out the window in the stove room. Another is when we went camping and u busted pap in the face with a tomato haha and when we boxed in the back yard with your new boxing gloves and i held my own. Everyone couldnt believe it. Those are just a few memories i will never forget but like i have mentioned we shared a lifetime of memories. He was such a loving and caring person. Anytime u needed him he was there. We are the same age, its very hearkbreaking to see him gone so young. I hate the fact i will never see or speak to u again bub. But we will be together again soon. I love u so much and u will def be missed every single day. R.I.P Kelsey Ray
